

Women's Liberation

Cover of Ms. Magazine, November 1973, USA

WSPU

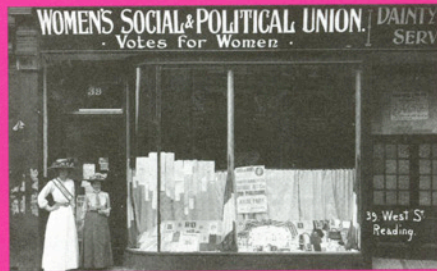

Women's Social and Political Union

4

5

6

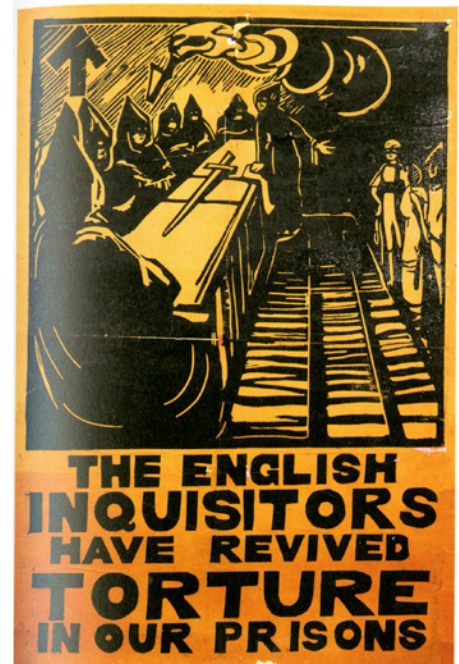

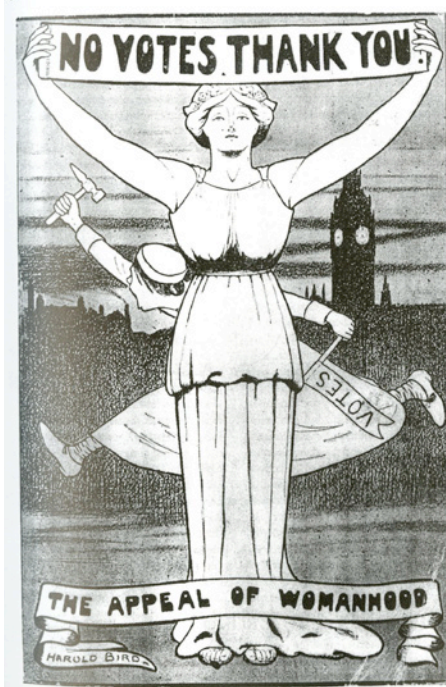

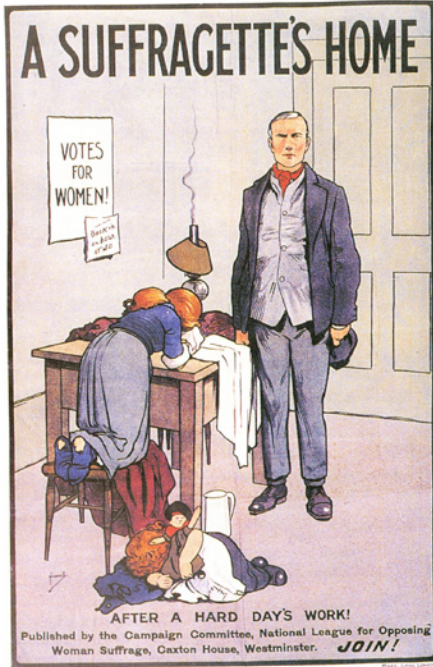

4 Catalogue and enquiries stall (showing prominent display of Sylvia Pankhurst's logo) at the WSPU 'Women's Exhibition and Sale of Work in the Colours', Princes' Skating Rink, Knightsbridge, London, May 1909 - one of many WSPU fund-raising activities.

5 Three of the four logos designed by Sylvia Pankhurst for the WSPU. Left to right: the angel trumpeter; a woman emerging from prison and stepping over broken chains; and a woman sowing the seeds of women's suffrage.

6 Postcard showing the front of the WSPU shop at 39 West Street in Reading, Berkshire, 1910.

Catalogue and Enquiries stall, London May 1909 at fundraising event
Logos: angel trumpeter, woman emerging from prison over broken chains, woman sowing seed's of women's surffrage
Postcard shoing front of WSPU shop

NLOWS & The Suffrage Atelier

World War II

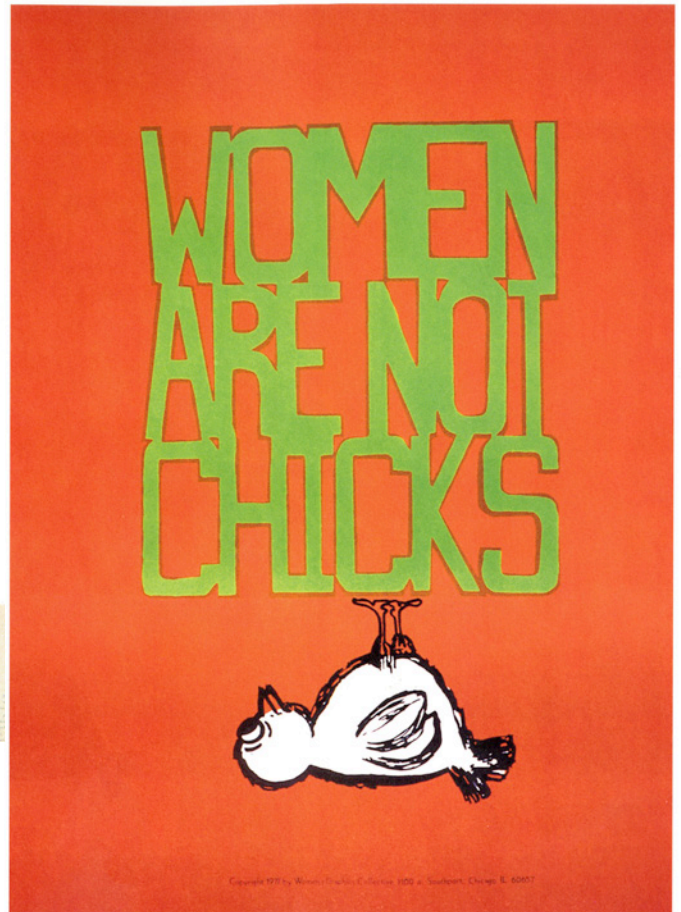

Women's Liberation

Variations of Women's Liberation Symbol

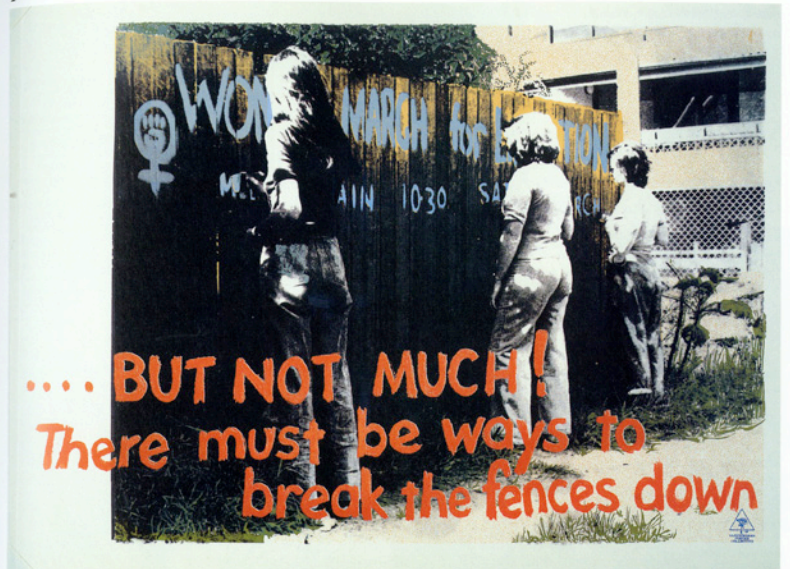

Chicago Women's Graphics Collective, USA 1970-1

writing on the fence is better than sitting on the fence...

.... BUT NOT MUCH!
There must be ways to break the fences down

History I and History II, Toni Robertson Australia 1977

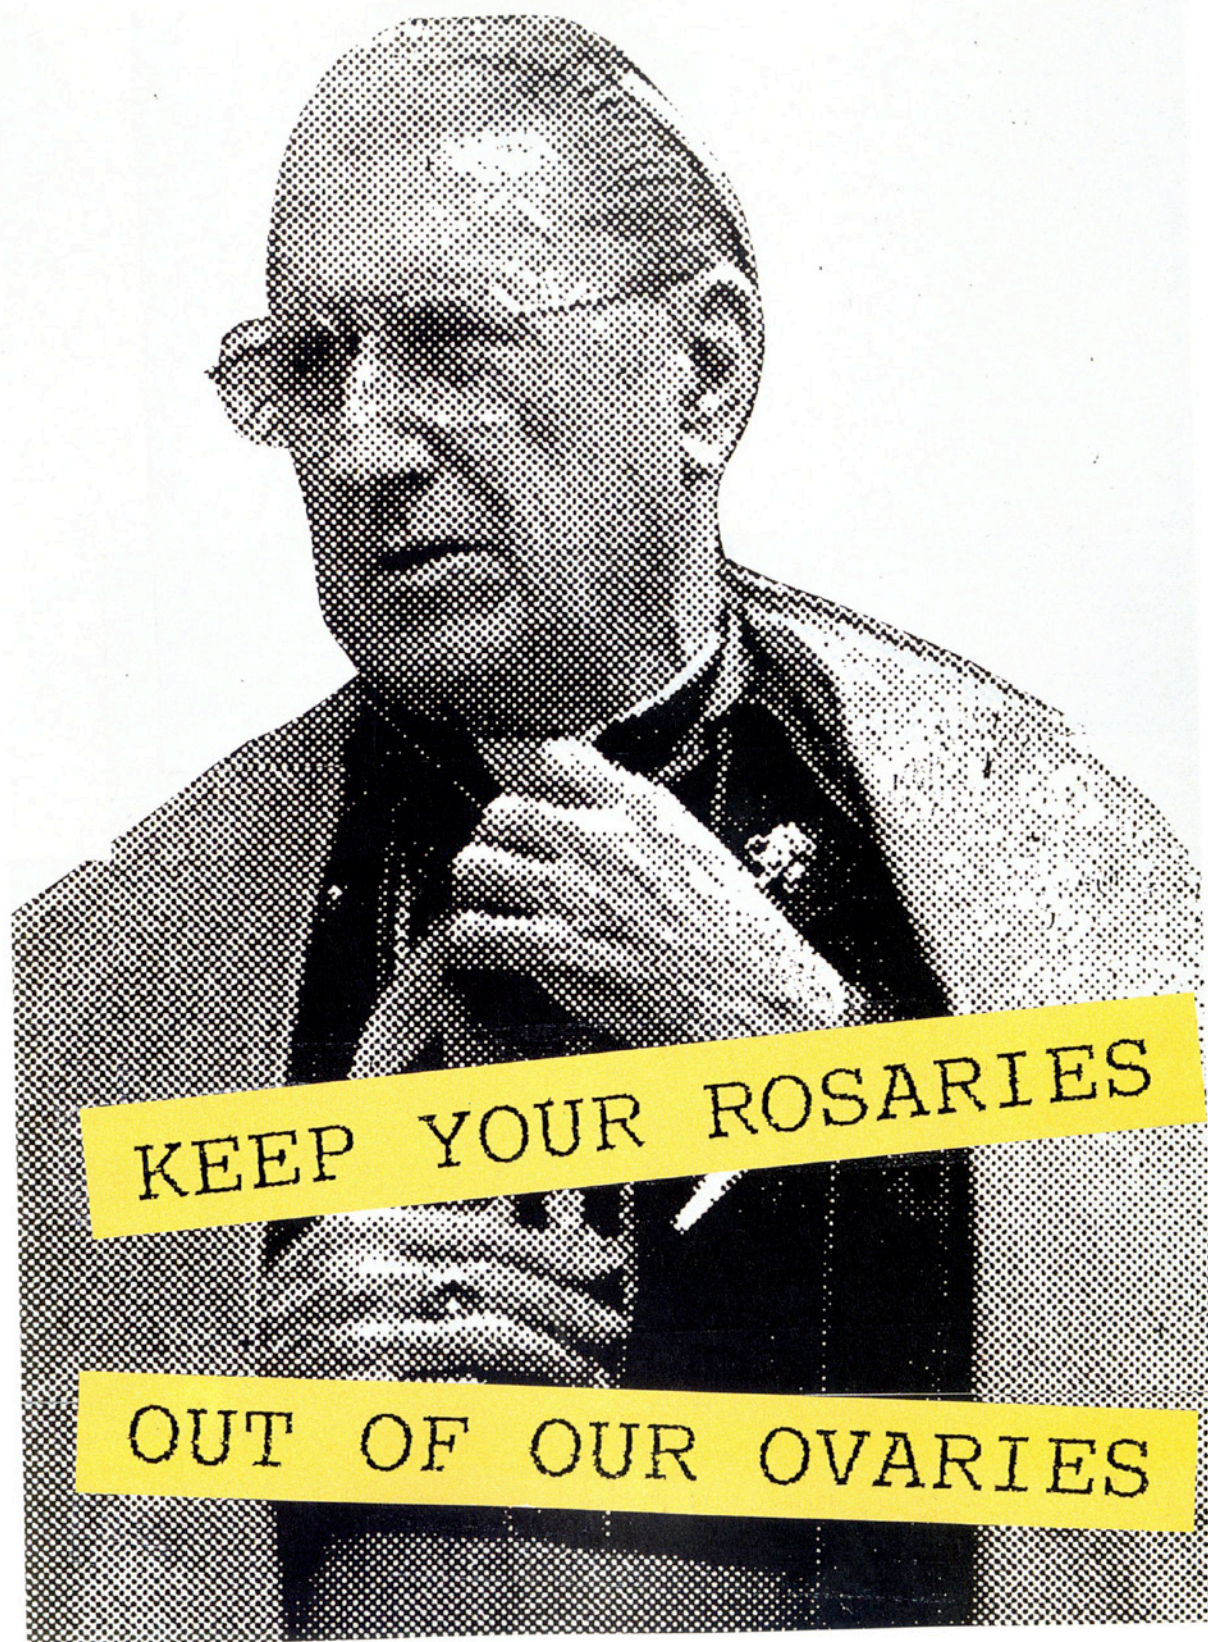

Some Living American Women Artists/Last Supper, Mary Beth Edelson (1971)

Women's Health

S Clement, mid 1970s

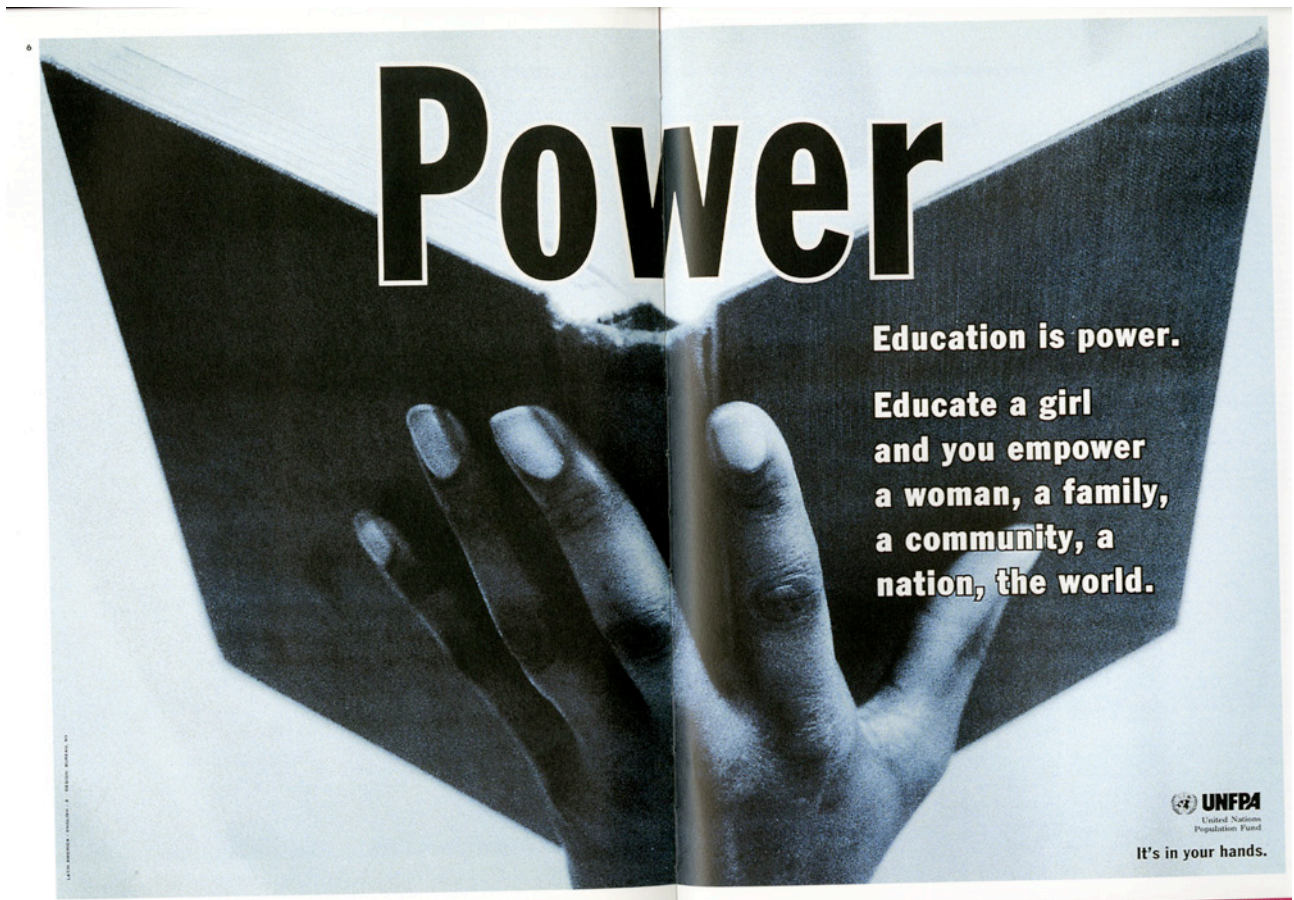

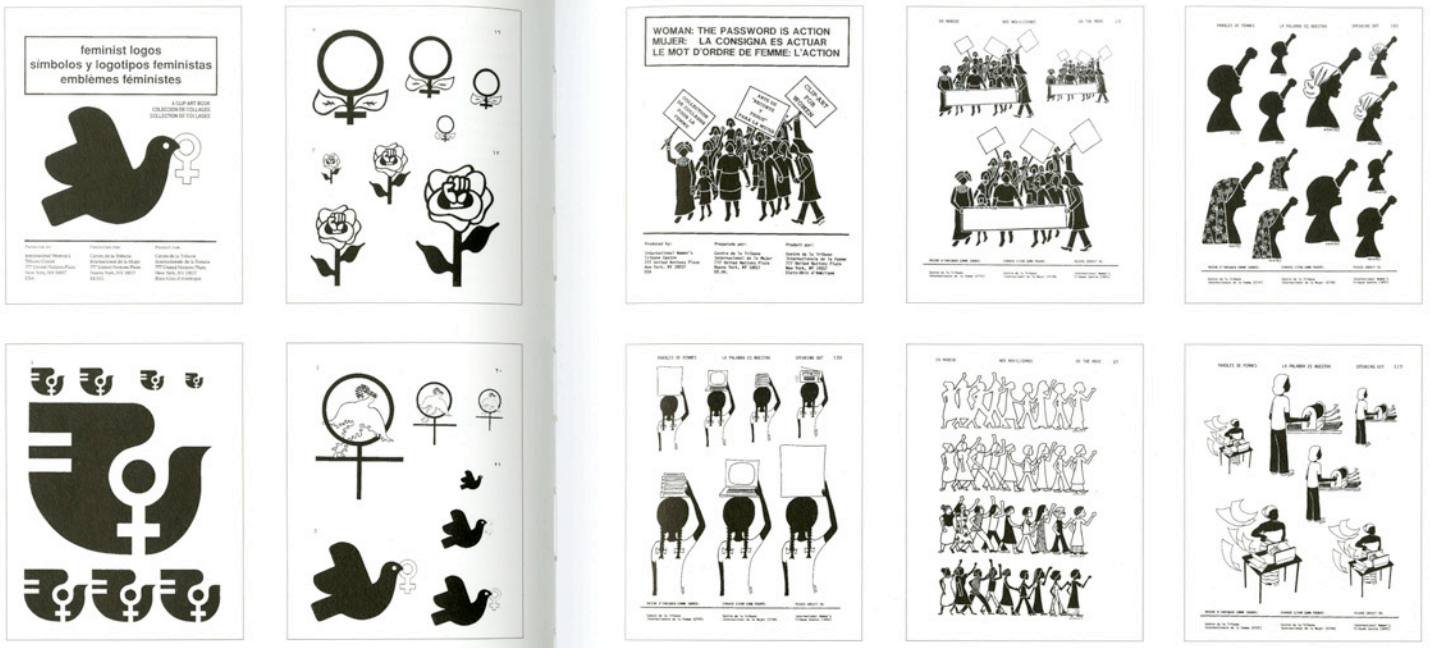

KEEP YOUR ROSARIES

OUT OF OUR OVARIES

Combatting Violence

Global Presence

Women in the Media Today

Miss Representation!